FORMULA 1™ EUROPEAN GRAND PRIX Valencia Street Circuit 26.06. – 27.06.2010

The Mediterranean Village

In occasion of the Grand Prix of Europe 2010 we may offer you a hospitality unit which combines local cuisine with a chill out site. The "Mediterranean Village" is located directly at the back of main grandstand "P1/P2", it offers a terrace area with open bar and a restaurant.

The Mediterranean Village experience starts with breakfast comprised of a wide selection of home-made mini-sized baked goods, coffees and a large assortment of juices and shakes (9 am to 10 am).

From midday on let yourself be seduced by savory Mediterranean dishes. Enjoy our delicious tidbits, fresh salads, "fideuás" and other rice dishes prepared to the city's best tradition, wrapping up your experience with a sampling of barbecue meats grilled on the moment, right in front of you, and not forgetting to try the dessert selection (12 am to 3 pm).

Take advantage of this privileged culinary offer in a comfortable setting with shaded areas or while relaxing and having a refreshing drink in our chill-out corner. The open bar service will be available from 10 am to 4 pm.

We can offer you tickets for the "Mediterranean Village" at a price per person of:

Saturday	€ 150,-
Sunday	€ 150,-
Friday*, Saturday and Sunday	€ 285,-

* On Friday only bar service will be available.

Attention! There are no grandstand tickets included in this hospitality offer. They will have to be bought additionally to access the circuit and the Mediterranean Village. We recommend to select grandstand "P1 or P2" which are located in the immediate surrounding.
